FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MIAMI BEACH PLASTIC SURGEON TO THE STARS IS TAKING HIS TALENTS TO NEW YORK CITY

Dr. Leonard Tachmes To Open Office in Upper East Side July 2014

(MIAMI, FL – June 2014) – South Florida plastic surgeon, Dr. Leonard Tachmes is proud to announce the opening of his newest office located at 114 East 71ST Street, Suite 1W, New York, NY 10021. The office will be open for appointments beginning on July 14, 2014. Since 1994, Dr. Tachmes has been a top surgeon in the South Florida area however, opening an office in The Big Apple has always been a career long dream. The jet setting surgeon will be taking appointments several days each month as he grows his Upper East Side practice.

"I am very excited about this new opportunity. I spent my formative surgical training years in New York City and have always considered Manhattan to be my second home. Similar to returning to Miami Beach twenty years ago to begin my private practice, this New York office completes a second life journey for me. I have many New York patients who will now be able to see me in the city for their aesthetic needs."

Dr. Tachmes will be seeing new patient consultations as well as established post-operative patients in his new office, and will feature his renowned techniques in non-surgical facial rejuvenation using Botox, Juvederm, Restylane and Voluma to achieve natural and aesthetically pleasing results. All surgery procedures will be performed at his South Beach Surgery Suite on Lincoln Road.
